My daughter you were rejected yesterday as people tried to put doubts in your mind. You suffered for this. Do not despair My word will be heard. You will face obstacles that will make you feel disillusioned with the work. My daughter I am guiding you. You must remember this and never forget My promise. I did, as you requested, and allowed you to sleep peacefully last night. You are stronger now. Can't you feel this?

Commentary

- The guidance from Jesus Himself is even very personal. MDM asked for a peaceful sleep and it was granted
- A reminder to all of us that the mission that we do is very tiring but in the intimate and personal relationship with our Lord we can request even just to give us a peaceful sleep so we wake up the next day strong again
- If God makes a promise, He will always be consistent and faithful to that promise. So make use of it in our prayers, remind the Lord of His promises

Be careful who you communicate with. My followers, or those you think are My followers, are not always as they seem. You must do what your heart tells you. The world may seem as it always has but there is change and it is happening now. This change is leading mankind into a darkness that will envelop them and which clouds their love for Me. Why must My children keep questioning the truth? They do not follow My teachings, yet they were given this gift from My apostles who, through love for Me and by the power of the Holy Spirit, gave the world a very special gift. The gift of truth was taught and spread to all My children throughout the world. Many children followed this guidance through the ages. Others, while knowing the truth, decided to twist it to suit their own means, desires, lust and quest for power. My followers then could not distinguish between the truth of the word of God and the falsehoods spread by those who were misguided. This is how the Deceiver works. He causes confusion, despair and a sense of hopelessness and has been doing this since My death on the cross. But hear Me now. He will not win My daughter. The forces of Heavenly guidance will instill in the children their belief once more through the teachings of My prophets. Ask My children to be alert to the changes they see in the world. Ask them to open their hearts, their eyes and minds to witness the lies spread by Satan. From him springs a web of promises designed to make My children feel attracted to external wonders. The wonders and false glory are empty. They are not reflective of love nor do they offer any real comfort once the emptiness of them are revealed. The forces of evil are getting stronger now My child. They are planned by Satan, through his army of wicked followers. These followers, through greed and love of self, follow in docile adoration and will be led into his flash paradise. His promised paradise is nothing but black darkness and by the time my children realise this the time for redemption will have passed.

Prayer for Salvation

All of My children must, even if it be for the love of their own families, wake up to this evil if they want to save each other. My love will keep them guided if they turn to Me now. They must never be afraid to turn and say

“Oh my Lord lead me to your kingdom and protect me from the darkness that has engulfed my soul. Hear me now Oh Sacred Heart and through your goodness let your light of love and protection shine through.”

Those of My children who say this prayer will be heard. Their pleas for salvation, for they and those whom they love, will be answered. I have, through My visionaries guided by My Blessed Mother, painstakingly tried to send warnings to the world. Many, many times my visionaries, though rejected in the beginning, were finally accepted. This time they will not be afforded the dignity of time for their messages to be heard by enough of My people.

Beware of false prophets

Be Wary of Falses (False) Prophets (typo error here)

But I must warn my children to be wary of false prophets. Many genuine visionaries have been misled. Visionaries who are genuine will be given the graces that will emit My truth in such a way that they will be accompanied by supernatural occurrences and miracles that cannot and won't be denied. My heart breaks when I see the way in which many of them have been denied by My most sacred disciples. These same disciples, whom I have sent to teach My children are failing in their task. They must turn now to Me for guidance and pray for the graces required to lead My people. My sacred servants are very special and those who have received the Sacraments must hear My plea. Your duty now is to Me. Renew your vows now. Believe and follow My sacred message. Be strong for you are now all being called to bear witness to the truth in the Book of Revelation and accept that the time has come. Prepare now for this great event. Do not deny Me or turn your back. Preach with strength and conviction. Do not water down My teachings and tell My followers that everything will be okay. This is not the message for which you were called. Your duty to Me, your Divine Saviour, is to inform your flock of the truth.

My children must not be told that all of them will be saved. This is an untruth. Because it is only those who seek out My forgiveness and surrender to Me and my teachings who will be saved. Why do you not follow the teachings of scripture? Why do you use excuses? Why do you misguide and convince My children that God will forgive all? My Eternal Father will only forgive those who believe in Me and who repent. Did My death on the cross not tell you anything? I died to save mankind from the folly of Satan. Yet you, through misguided tolerances, teach My children a lie. You have fallen victim to the pressure of mankind to camouflage the Holy doctrine for which you were called to preach. Have you no shame? So caught up in the worldly attractions that the earth has to offer are you that you follow false dogma dictated to you by the popular tolerance that Satan has spread among My children. These poor misguided children need direction. They also must understand the difference between human interpretation and that divine promise made by Me. Why would My children not believe in divine intervention? Why do you play this down when it is presented to you? My priests hear my plea. Pray that My message of truth will be heard.

Message to Bishops

To My Bishops I say this. Put down your robes, turn your back on the riches which you have given credence to. Seek out the humility that is required of you. Obey My word now or face the consequences. Your duty is to Me and My Eternal Father. How blind you have become. Signs are now being given through visionaries, in the sky, and you have failed to heed them. Instead you sit in your castles and sneer. For this your sins will not be forgiven. The sins of my sacred disciples, those who chose My path, offend me greatly. Open your eyes, your hearts and go back to the teachings in my sacred book.

Commentary

- This is really a very difficult revelation from our Lord, but sadly, the truth is very glaring. Now I will share some sensitive points here but I want you to be very prudent and responsible in treating this information
- The Shrine of the Holy Infant Jesus of Prague in Davao City was built by the Santos Family in 1968 on their property (about 4 hectares in a breezy elevation with lots of greeneries). The image was a faithful replica from Prague, Czech Republic by the matriarch of the clan, Doña Catherina Santos. Devotees and pilgrims would flock to the shrine because of the miracles associated with the devotion (this is the Sto. Niño de Praga as distinct from the Sto. Niño de Cebu)
- It was the ardent wish of the Santos Family that the shrine will be administered by a religious group and the 1st two administrators was an Italian, the 2nd and the last is a Filipino
- After that, there were negotiations with succeeding archbishops but the administration has never been returned to the religious group by the archdiocese inspite of the original wish of the Santos Family
- The Shrine of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Baclaran is administered by another religious group. There was much trouble as many times they were told to turn over the shrine to the archdiocese. In the end, the latter built the Shrine of Jesus, the Way, the Truth and the Life in Central Business Park, Reclamation Area in Pasay City just a little distant from the Marian Shrine
- In Medjugorje, the St. James Parish is administered by another religious group, and the Bishop of Mostar negotiated with the friars to relinquish a number of parishes and the religious group willingly gave the parishes to the administration of the diocese. But the Bishop wants more, the religious group refused because they have already given so much
- The bishop of Mostar according to an article in Medjugorje TV said: Why did the Gospa not appear in the bishop's palace, instead of appearing to the visionaries? (and his mouth is frothing as the article says)
- This is a sad reality in the Church, but in fairness to the faithful clergy, many are faithful to their vows but cannot do anything because they are powerless. The faithful clergy are the ones who suffer, crying in silence for the many unholy decisions. It is really a shame for us the clergy that we find it very difficult to settle matters dealing with monetary issues

- When St. Francis and companions appeared to the Pope for the approval of the Rule of the Order looking like real beggars and in tatters, the Pope said: "Your poverty put us into shame"
- With this, I ask forgiveness for the shortcomings and weaknesses of all the clergy, even If I am not told to do so, I do it voluntarily
- We need to pray for the clergy, many of them are innocent from the lies presented to them as they are so intricate that it looks so true, because it is ingrained right from the very tender years of formation
- I used to have a very radical thinking before but years of reading and research at the same time fidelity to my vows, thank God, I am enlightened. I believe it's because of the prayers of my family and the other people close to me. Probably also because of the strength of character. I wrestled with demons in my dreams until I was already afraid to sleep. It was at that time that my spiritual director told me that you do not fight with demons, you exorcise them In the Name of Jesus or ask St. Michael to do it for you. So I learned the lesson, and those dark spirits never bothered me anymore during sleep
- So it takes tremendous effort to let the general clergy believe in the Book of Truth. But let us remember what has been cited in Message 2: the ORDINARY PEOPLE will have to lead the way in spreading the truth about My Second Coming
- We may never come to a time for an ECCLESIASTICAL APPROVAL to promote the Book of Truth. No. The way I see it, time is so short

Message to Cardinals

To My Cardinals I say this. To what lofty heights have you risen that you have forgotten the sacraments or the truth of my teachings to lead My flock. Come down now and follow My guidance. Do not be distracted by the falsehoods which have gripped mankind. Don't you, too, deny Me. I ask you all to pray for My beloved brave Pope, the last true Pope. You, My disciples, are being led astray by the Deceiver. He has made himself known in the corridors of my Church and his evil ways now present themselves. To those of you who have eyes keep watching, in front of you and behind you. He will snatch your soul if you give in to his deceit. Please pray now for all of you. Beg for My guidance. Beg forgiveness and let Me lead you again.

Commentary

- I met 3 cardinals in person; the late Cardinal Sin (in his bedroom in Villa San Miguel he signed a document for me together with the cardinal's confessor); the late Cardinal Vidal (in a conference for religious, How to Dismantle Bombs during the heydays of ISIS terrorism) and the then bishop at that time Cardinal Tagle (in an audience when we were still seminarians in Cavite). I know them to be holy people

- But we remember the message of Fatima, many cardinals will sell their red hats to Satan, we can only really pray that this will be lessened or mitigated because it will really be a selloff because the cardinals hold power with their office
- The crux of the matter is that: The higher the authority you have, the greater the responsibility it entails

(Back to Message)

To those of you will question this instruction listen now. Why would I not communicate with you in this way? I taught you all through the Apostles who, with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, gave the world My messages which have lived on since. Now the time is near. All your life you prayed for guidance. At this time now, I urge you to hear My plea.

Commentary

- Quote "Why would I not communicate with you in this way?" Yes. Can we ever stop God from communicating directly to His children? No. We can never stop God from doing so
- And throughout the centuries, God gives His messages to ORDINARY PEOPLE for unknown reasons
- The authorities can only question the authenticity of the messages. That is the duty of the ecclesial authorities to investigate wholeheartedly in a fair, impartial, unbiased investigation, otherwise, those responsible will be under the burden of guilt
- But, it will come a long way and as I mentioned earlier, it may never even come

Your Divine Saviour Jesus Christ
