Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

My beloved daughter concentrate and listen to what I have to say. You are now in the throes of a transition from the time you received the first message to the present ones. Please understand that these messages are coming from Me and please stop your doubts now. This will enable you to concentrate on the work for which you have been called.

Commentary

- Doubt is really stifling. You cannot do things in a proper perspective if you are riddled with doubts. You do not decide also when in doubt. Jesus is motivating MDM to stop the doubts so she can concentrate on the tasks assigned to her
- What is my experience about doubt? When I started with the BoT 10 years ago I have so much doubts of the messages but strangely, I am always drawn into it. I would wait patiently browsing the internet daily when will be the next message will be given, and I will download it, catalogue it and archived it that is why I have a complete trove of all the messages before the BoT was even published. I have seen the real book form only when I started with the JTM crusade last May and somebody gave copies to me in 5 volumes
- I will read and reread the messages all over again and I would cry in front of my laptop. Just to be honest with you I have cried countless times and in torrents of tears because of the emotion I felt reading the messages
- I was a school director at that time so what can I do to make the students pray? The Father, Jesus and Mary are all asking for prayers
- At that time I still have contact with MDM through email, so I ask Maria to ask the Lord to assist me in my project in school, and she told me this: "Father I will ask Jesus to help you in your most sacred and important work"
- And so we were able to build the 2 sanctuaries so very easily without problems even in funding; the Sanctuary of the Holy Rosary, and the Sanctuary of the Divine Mercy and more than 300 boys and girls from elementary to college would do the prayers every 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon alternately from Mondays to Fridays
- The students are still praying even when I was no longer assigned there because it is now part of the curriculum, up and until this lockdown happened and the school is now empty
- So in my case the doubts just disappeared maybe because of the prayers of the students? The prayers of my mother brother and sisters? I don't know. I don't even have affiliation with any prayer group at that time except the one in the internet which I am not really serious

- But I was already preaching about the BoT in my masses, teaching the prayers to my family members, and endorsing the messages to some people I know because I just simply believe in the messages
- So in my case, the doubts just disappear, and still, at times, doubts will come back even at the present. It is God really is the one who makes my doubts disappear

In relation to matters which are occurring in the world it is now becoming clearer by the day what the evil world order are trying to inflict on the world.

Quote: "The United Nations, one of the many fronts for this new world order, are trying to stamp out all My teachings and will use every lethal weapon at their disposal to do this"

Commentary

- I believe so much in this organization, but as went through years of research, this UN is really just so fake, a farce, a front to exploit the people and governments of the world
- Pres. Duterte even said that the UN has never stopped a single war in its history existence

Back to Message

Fear not because My believers will fight hard and will not deny Me especially in those countries which are consecrated to Me and who have a devout and unshakable faith. They will not stand back and allow this. But for many because of the costs involved in ensuring that their children are guided in the light, they will be powerless. As explained to you before the wrath of My Eternal Father is about to be shown on the earth as man inches nearer and nearer in their attempts to disown Me.

The world looks the same. People seem the same. The world of television with its rose tinted appeal seems the same. People bury their heads in the sand. They think that the world will continue as it is. Sadly they are mistaken. My duty to My children is to save you. Not to allow you continue to be sucked into an empty vacuum of promises, empty dreams and false ambitions. These are the pleasures to which you gave allegiance for many, many years.

These are the promises that those of you, through no fault of your own, were convinced was the path to follow for self-worth. Self-gain. Self-Reward. You were told to look after number one whatever the cost. The number one being you. You with your ambitions, lust for wealth for yourself and your children, desire to become better than your brothers and sisters, and a constant relentless quest for self-acclaim were fooled.

These ambitions were fed to My children, through the appeal and gloss of these ambitions by the Deceiver. Many of My children will laugh at this message and say that this is not true.

Unfortunately the Deceiver exists and most of My children do not accept that he does. He is cunning in that he hides behind things, people, acts and appealing incentives. His glamorous allure means that, today, if you ask a person which they would accept – money or a chance to reunite with their lost families – and they will opt for money.

Ask another if they would betray their brother or sister for material gain. And the answer will be yes. Ask a young child if they would trade their simple life for a life of wonder and excitement and the answer will be yes. Why then do My children find it hard to understand that once the grand prize has been awarded to them do they then feel they need more and more?

A wealthy man who gains once will constantly continue to attain more. The reason for this is that Satan's gifts leave a raw empty feeling inside you that you do not understand. So you continue in your quest to seek out more and it is usually at the expense of the welfare of your neighbour.

No man gains huge wealth without the people he met on the way suffering to some degree. No person who gains fame will get there unless someone else has had to do without. A man that does not share his wealth is doomed. A person who has nothing tends to share more than those who have been blessed with material comforts.

Commentary

- In the boxed segment above are the messages of Jesus concerning wealth
- The deception is there and that the cover for the program of running for wealth is deceitfully covered that the devil does not exist, so why would the pursuit for wealth could be so bad?
- First of all, money is not evil in itself. It only becomes evil when you are already enslaved by it, you are ruled by it
- Wealth and money are blessings from God. We remember King Solomon, he only asked for wisdom so he can govern the people and make decisions intelligently, and God is pleased with him
- God did not only give him wisdom but also all the riches of the world. He was the richest man ever alive at that time. Such wealth is a grace given by God
- Even in the Scriptures, especially for the Jews, riches and wealth are blessings from God and this is how they look at it even during the OT times
- We need money as we live in this world for our temporal needs. Obviously, all the basics of living including housing, education, and future security
- The real danger in the quest for money is never ending, it is insatiable, it is bottomless without any contentment or satisfaction

- Quote: "Why then do My children find it hard to understand that once the grand prize has been awarded to them do they then feel they need more and more?"
- If you attended mass yesterday this was the gospel. It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for the rich to enter the KoG
- Did you ever wonder why millionaires, billionaires, will still corrupt and corrupt more just to gain more wealth?
- And did you ever ask why even the rich people still commit suicide to end their problems? Because wealth brings them no peace at all
- Quote: "A wealthy man who gains once will constantly continue to attain more. The reason for this is that Satan's gifts leave a raw empty feeling inside" there is no peace at all
- Indeed, rich people will have difficulty entering the KOG because of the burden of their wealth and treasures IF THEY HAVE ALREADY BECOME SLAVES TO THEIR OWN RICHES
- Treasures become a hindrance to the KOG if the person already looks at it as his or her new God, the new idol of materialism
- And if that person no longer thinks of helping other people, and instead of helping, that person even exploits others, exploits situations and uses his or her own money to gain more money. This makes riches a hindrance to the KOG because it has become evil by its purpose
- We remember The Rich Man and Lazarus in the gospel (Luke 16:19-31). The rich man is dressed in purple and fine linen and lived in luxury every day and the beggar named Lazarus, covered with sores longed to eat what fell from the rich man's table
- When both died, Lazarus is in heaven and the rich man is in hell. Why is he in hell? The rich man did not hurt Lazarus, he did not abuse the beggar, he is just enjoying the luxury everyday
- The rich man is in hell because HE DID NOT DO ANYTHING TO HELP LAZARUS. That's it. He did not lift a finger to help others even though he has the capacity to help with all his riches
- THE SIN IS NOT ON WHAT THE RICH MAN DID BUT IN WHAT HE HAS FAILED TO DO as we recite in the Confiteor in the Penitential Rites
- When God has given us enormous wealth here on earth, we are also given the enormous responsibility to help others. There is a purpose why we prosper and that is to help others
- I know of so many rich people who are so charitable, helping the Church, setting foundations for scholars, etc. That is very noble
- But there are also rich people, who corrupts more and exploit the poor and they become even more rich, illicit drug trade especially that I know and they also donate to the poor and to the Church to lessen their guilt and they continue doing all the bad things
- It does not work that way. For the good things the drug lord did, HE HAS ALREADY RECEIVED HIS REWARD. This is an ominous sign when they continue to prosper even with all the bad things they did and they are not punished, they have received the reward there is no more in the afterlife

- Charity is not giving help on one hand, and stealing from others on the other hand
- Quote: "Money given away to charity is meaningless if it is done in order to seek glory or attention" Wealth and riches must always serve for the good of humanity and not for self-aggrandizement
- Another thing is this. We will also fall into the category of the sin of "Sloth" if we simply just enjoy our own prosperity and we do not care for others. True, that we worked all our lives to attain the comfort that we have today, but let us never forget there are always others who may need our help, so we should not forget them

My Teachings cannot be watered down

Why do My children ignore these teachings, taught by My apostles since the new scriptures were produced? Why do they not heed the doctrine they contain? Do they believe that they were written by My disciples so that people would not listen? These teachings have not changed since I left this earth. They are there for a reason. You can change their interpretation, water it down, add new meaning or delete some parts but one thing will remain. And that is the truth. The truth will always stay the same. It cannot and will not be changed to suit mankind. Heed this now.

Sit up and listen. You cannot expect to follow this route and enter My Father's Kingdom. Many of you justify the wealth and glory you gain and attribute this to luck. What you may not realise is that many of you sold your souls to the Evil One in the process. Some of My children do know that they have committed this grave sin and think nothing of it. Others genuinely believe that they are simply doing the best for themselves and their families but they must understand that financial security is acceptable. Quest for luxury and wealth is not. The reality is that vast amounts of wealth are gained through sin. Wealth that may be gained without sin will lead to sin.

Despite the teachings of My Father's Church throughout the world people still do not accept My teachings. Wealthy people who strive for material gain have one God. Poor people who strive for wealth have one God. They are both the same. Money. Money is useless if it is acquired dishonestly and where those less fortunate do not benefit from the experience. Money, material wealth and all good things gained by those people who consider themselves fortunate must be shared among those who need it. Money given away to charity is meaningless if it is done in order to seek glory or attention.

Be assured that with the evil that is being planned now in the world when the desire to leave you with empty pockets becomes a reality only then will you realise how little value money holds. When they, the evil entity, take over your money and render you powerless to touch it without agreeing to their terms then you will finally realise that you will need an alternative route to happiness.

Your money will be worthless. You will need then to survive the way of the jungle. Those with survival instincts will find it easier than those who never had to work on their bended knees before. Seeds to grow your own food will mean more to you than a million dollars. A simple fruit will mean more to you than a flash car. Because when you are stripped bare you will call out to your maker your creator. It is only then, and only then, will you realise that all that matters is the love in your heart. Because without love you cannot grow, nor can you enter My Father's Kingdom. Think now.

Be careful in your quest for wealth. Stop now before it is too late. Share and divide and follow My path. This is a tough lesson for My children who feel a sense of insecurity.

Your beloved Saviour Jesus Christ
