Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

My daughter your faith is being continually tested every hour of the day when you are being pressurized by outsiders to dismiss these messages. This will always happen. It is time to get used to this torment. You can be reassured now, more than ever, that these messages are authentic and come from Me the Divine Saviour of Mankind Jesus Christ. It saddens Me when I see believers, in particular, so influenced by The Deceiver to dismiss My most Holy Word when it is being presented for the world to witness.

Commentaries

- So this is a very short message but so concise and directed in its simplicity
- I quote: "My daughter your faith is being continually tested every hour of the day when you are being pressurized by outsiders to dismiss these messages. This will always happen." And it happened to me. And I would like to share some personal insights about this, maybe you will also learn something
- In the course of the last 10 years I am always tormented with doubts, doubts, doubts, nothing but doubts with really nobody to get counsel. My co-religious would listen to me but we always end with arguments because I always defend what I believe. In the end, I would be back left on my own
- The first group that I preached about the messages are my family members. Since my late mother is very devoted to the Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart, we agreed to construct a grotto in our small garden outside the house and everytime I am on vacation we would celebrate mass in the grotto or the sanctuary where the twin hearts are enthroned

- I have learned from a priest I met in the past that it is always good to pray in a sanctuary, be it in the family altar or in any place but there should be a crucifix or sacred icons
- I still remember, one time, my sisters requested me to talk about the messages with nephews and nieces around and that night during sleep, I wrestled with demons. I mean, I thought they were demons in different dark figures or shadows attacking me in my dreams but in the same dream I prayed the St. Michael prayer and the demons were gone and I woke up gasping and panting. Still, I was back to sleep peacefully
- I have learned this craft from my late spiritual director now in the bosom of our Lord (he is a Spaniard) who told me not to fight with demons, instead, ask Jesus to remove them or ask St. Michael
- So it helped me in the discernment process, when the demons would harass you as Jesus said in this message: "You can be reassured now, more than ever, that these messages are authentic and come from Me the Divine Saviour of Mankind Jesus Christ." It would appear then, that if the message is authentic and we believe in it, the devil would be mad
- But just to tell you, make no mistake, I have never seen a real demon or a real saint in real time manifesting when my eyes are wide open. It is always in my dreams. (I have learned in psychology that dreams are in the sub-conscious, and the sub-conscious is the real self)

Back to Message

My daughter you are more than capable of ignoring now all voices who claim to speak with the authority given to them by Divine sources. Many false prophets are present in the world today and are not who they claim to be. Only listen to My voice as I have told you before. You do not need the approval of others to continue with this sacred work. These volumes of sacred messages will be seen for what they are in time. You must never be tempted by misinformed souls that they are not divinely inspired. Because that is not the case. Block out the lies that will assail your ears by The Deceiver, Satan. He, My daughter, wants to stop this work and will do everything to prevent you.

Rise now and speak with the authority of the Holy Spirit which has been bequeathed to you My precious daughter. You are a chosen messenger to deliver, as I have said, the most important messages for mankind in these times. You make Me so happy with the strength and courage you have shown in the face of the attacks you have had to endure at the hands of Satan. Remember though you must accept this work with the humility expected of you. Receive Me in your soul now everyday for extra graces. I love you My daughter. Heaven rejoices at the speed of your response to My Most Holy will.

Commentaries

- So all the negativity exerted by others telling us that these messages are not of divine origin might really could hurt us. But you see, “we become immune to the wicked assaults of the devil” (CoP 96)
- Always remember that this is a spiritual battle and so this is a war of principalities that we do not see. And for every spiritual battle that we do, there is always an equivalent in its physical sphere and this time, we can see with our own eyes all the troubles in this world
- The problem is that, even those people we do not like do not even know that they are being used as the minions of the dark powers behind

- And worse because of the power of the technology of mind-control there is really no way to argue with these people
- If you listen to the mantra of all those social constructs like pro-choice, LGBT, climate change adherents to name a few, they all seemed beautiful and even very convincing to listen and the people promoting them would just think that they are contributing sincerely to make the world a little better
- A lot of people have that kind of mindset. But what they do not know is that they are simply being lied to. Satan is not capable of telling the truth because he is the King of Lies
- That is why we cannot hate those who reject these messages as Jesus would say on the cross "father, forgive them for they know not what they do"
- It is the amount of prayers prayed that will convert God's children. And let us never forget this: we can only preach about conversion to others whom we think needs conversion
- But, the grace of conversion does not belong to us. It belongs to God, in His own perfect time
- We are under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we do not need the approval of others

Your Saviour Jesus Christ
