Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

Write this My daughter. Death dealt out to innocent victims is one of the greatest sins which man can inflict on his brother. It is the most grievous sin of the flesh and causes Me deep pain. The lack of regard that mankind today has for human life is becoming increasingly evident in the world. Life is a precious gift from God. No man has the right to take the life of another. No man has the right to take the life of a child still to take his first breath at the time of birth. This crime is heinous and unforgivable. All souls come from my Eternal Father and are created at the moment of conception. Little children, innocent souls, are being murdered by the very people sent to nurture them – their own mothers, who are responsible for their being denied the right to be born.

Commentary

- CCC says: 2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life
- It is very explicit that life begins at conception as defined in the CCC. So the first moment of existence of a human being is his conception. This is the ethical and the moral foundation of the beginning of life in many different faiths of the world, making it a universal absolute that before conception there is no life yet if we analyze the provision in the CCC
- I will not deal anymore of the medical nitty gritty of conception as the experts could expound on that better
- From this universal absolute, the social thinkers would inject the thoughts into the human psyche through different avenues like human principles, philosophies and taught in schools and universities, and funded also by foundations also owned by the elites
- They will teach that it is not yet a human being, it is just a glob of tissue, it cannot feel the pain, it is just a glob of blood, it is very safe, you will not feel any guilt at all, many are doing it, it is a mark of a sophisticated urbane woman, it is a right to terminate it, you have a right to your own body, you have the right to decide, you are free, everything is alright, etc.
- Now, if the man or the woman, the boy or the girl does not have a good spiritual foundation in the home, or a proper Catechism from their parents, or from the school, they can just easily be swayed by these socially engineered lies. We are talking here about the external factors concerning the decision of terminating a pregnancy
- But wait, there is always the unwritten law that comes from the dictates of our own conscience where God speaks to us

- Have you not observed that when an innocent child does something wrong, even though he does not know that it is wrong like breaking the favorite flower vase of his Mom, the child would be scared even if Mom will not be mad about it, but the child is still scared because he is given the understanding that breaking a vase is not something that is alright
- This is how conscience works for human beings, and so the persons involved in abortion will understand that it is wrong, but, because of fear, confusion, because of pressures or reprisals, and they are disoriented that they are not prepared with the reality that the sexual union has borne fruit, plus the added propaganda in the media both print and broadcast that supports the termination; they will continue with their decision, nevertheless
- A subject related to this is the consequence of unwanted pregnancies. There is a saying that goes like this: It takes two to tango. Abortion happens because of an unwanted pregnancy. Pregnancy happens because of the sexual union that precedes it. There is a partner before abortion takes place
- When the sexual act is consumed be it within the bounds of marriage or outside of it; be it in an adulterous form if one or both partners are married doing the act outside of their husband or wife, or it can simply be an act of fornication when both partners consumed the sexual act but they are single, and are not married to each other
- In any of the partnerships mentioned, there is always the partner, but the woman bears the burden of childbearing and the birthing of the fruit of the sexual union
- Now, the penalty for abortion is latae sententiae or ex-communication. The Franciscans and the Redemptorists as to what I know can hear confessions for abortion perpetually given as a privilege; but some priests can only hear confession on abortion 3 times a year and needs yearly renewal. So if priests are not available, the penitent must find a bishop for confession
- Now as discussed already abortion is a fallout of an unwanted pregnancy consequential to a relation consumed that is either licit or illicit and the woman bears the burden of guilt. Now here goes the following:
- If the woman terminated her pregnancy in her total free will, with all the knowledge that killing is wrong, then, she committed the transgression against the 5th commandment killing the unborn
- But if the woman or the girl, is pressured, coerced, or forced to commit abortion outside of her own free will, by her boyfriend, husband, parents, other people, or even because of a difficult situation, then, she is less culpable. She still commits the sin but in a lesser degree
- Remember that the recipe to commit mortal sin is the full knowledge that it is grave, and the full freedom to do it even if it is bad. But if there is pressure and coercion, there is no freedom, therefore, the aggressor has lesser guilt or culpability because of the external pressure that made you do it

- I quote from the message below:
"And it is justified by Governments, the medical profession and these women's families. Have they no remorse in their souls? Do they not realise that their heinous act is no different to that act when man murders man?"
- The justification by governments, family members and other people to allow abortion to be performed is equal to the act of doing abortion itself. In this case, the greater culpability or guilt even lies on the responsible people mentioned above. Why?
- It is of greater culpability because the mere act of enacting a law legalizing abortion in general is already in itself heinous before the eyes of God because such law already has the potential of promoting genocide under a cover of individual rights
- After all, in the end, whatever kind of sin we commit no matter how dark, God will always embrace us back to His own fold except for one sin
- And I would like to add this important part in this message that says: "This crime is heinous and unforgivable"
- Unforgivable? It would appear that God is inconsistent with His very act of forgiveness! Not really
- Let's go back to Message 17. "Then there is the final sinner. When his sins are shown to him, all he will do is argue and deny and turn his back into the darkness of eternal Hell"
- I have already shared to you that the man above has committed the sin of final impenitence. Refusing the love and mercy of God to the last breath of his life and that is the sin that cannot be forgiven – the sin against the Holy Spirit that cannot be forgiven
- God relents to our prayers, to our needs, to our situations
- Even the horrors of abortion that has begotten the wrath of God, could be mitigated by our prayers
- Jesus is also saying here: "These women must ask for mercy if they are guilty."
- In my short years of counseling especially when I was still assigned in the university belt, abortion is a little more common among teenagers, more often abortion is done because the boyfriend would not marry the girl, the girl is so afraid of the parents, studies will stop, so terrified of a bleak future, and sometimes it is even the parents who would suggest abortion. They have sex but they are only 15, 16, or 17 mere teenagers, they have not grown well yet in matters of moral reasoning
- In these cases, we cannot slap the penalty of guilt when their conscience is so ill-informed. That is why the enemy wants to sow lies and confusion in order to water down the truth
- I have read before that in Russia a great number of women could even undergo 5 to 6 abortions in her reproductive life because abortion is so easy, and so ordinary. Do you think Russia is now converted? No!
- The women who had abortions may not even see that this sin is so horrid before God, and worse, the country even looks at religion as an opium of the people. They commit the sin but again, the laws of the country allow such. So this is no longer categorized as a personal or individual sin. It is now a national transgression. So the whole nation could suffer countrywide chastisement to purify the abomination. It goes beyond the personal level

- The reason that abortion is so abominable is because the fetus cannot even fight for himself, totally helpless, when the womb of the mother is supposedly the safest geography in the world for the child, in a legalized abortion, it has become the most dangerous
- The prophecy in Fatima is now even more relevant today. There was no specific Russia at that time, it is just one of the many republics of the USSR but Mary insisted the specific consecration of Russia
- And now we understand, because the USSR will collapse, disappear and wiped out of the map but Russia will remain as the inheritor of the USSR's legacy of socialism
- Even the very dark sin of genocide through abortion can still be forgiven, through prayer, after a cleansing and purification, through Consecration
- As the BVM said, In the end, My Immaculate Heart will triumph

Back to Message

Why do My children stand back and do nothing? In the name of freedom these little angels from My Father's Kingdom are being taken off this earth before the time assigned to them, as children of God, has taken place. Do these women not understand that the lives they place so little value on are those of God? These children are suffering. They endure agonizing pain during their murder. And it is justified by Governments, the medical profession and these women's families. Have they no remorse in their souls? Do they not realise that their heinous act is no different to that act when man murders man? In fact it is an even greater sin as these children are helpless. These women must ask for mercy if they are guilty. Or ask for guidance from Me if they are considering an abortion. Either way they will be judged by their sin. Sins of the flesh are the most offensive in my Father's eyes. No amount of justification for murdering another fellow being is acceptable by Me or My Eternal Father.

Wake up now My children and understand that the taking of life will lead the perpetrators into the eternal fires of hell. There will no return from this abyss full of demons. Those same demons, who through the work of The Deceiver – Satan – convinces the murderer that what he or she is doing is right! He will cunningly convince mothers, for example, that they are making the 'right decision'. Using every trick associated with human reasoning he will make the person justify the act even though it is wrong. He will use the lie that the murderer has rights of their own. That they must look after their own interests first. In the name of human rights the lie is manifested so that the rights of a mother and her freedom to live life as she chooses is to be admired. The lie then convinces her that it is right and correct to murder her child. Please understand that the escalation of genocide in the world has been foretold. It is one of the many signs spoken of in relation to the End Times. Stop all of you now. Listen. Murder is a very serious offence. Do it and you will not be saved. There is no going back. Repent those of you who have committed this terrible sin. Ask for forgiveness now. I, through My Mercy, will hear your prayer. You can, and will be saved, if you are truly sorry for your grievous sin. I will listen. I will forgive. But time is not on your side. Believers pray hard for these lost and wandering children of mine who have been misled by The Deceiver and his minions in positions of power. They need your prayers now. You must, all of you, defend the right to human life which cannot be tampered with by human hands in any circumstances. Pray to Me every day. Offer any sufferings you may have for the innocent victims.

Your Beloved Saviour Jesus Christ
