Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

My daughter stay strong. You must not torture yourself by reading the comments on the internet which prove the hatred that many, many of My children feel towards Me. My rejection did not begin and end at My crucifixion. It continues today as a direct result of the hatred spread by Satan through My children. You will suffer in My name so too will My beloved followers who dare to defend Me. This, My beloved daughter, is not new. It is just shocking for you to witness it.

Commentary

- So this is a very short message and Jesus is exhorting MDM not to be tortured (psychologically) reading the bad comments in the internet about the hatred of others on the Lord
- There are 2 kinds of criticisms that we know of. The 1st one is constructive; that is, you criticize and also make suggestions so it becomes better next time
- The 2nd one is destructive. This is the criticism that comes from people who are either envious because of what you did, and could only wish for our demise as if there is nothing good in what they say about what we do. This criticism is oriented towards negativity
- On one occasion in our formation in the life of the Order, we are privileged to receive inputs concerning Enneagram from our American facilitator. He asked: What is the reason why we are angry? And he said, 1.) We are angry because we do not like what the other person is doing; 2.) We are angry because we cannot do or we cannot afford to do what the other person is doing

- So, when we do something good for the Lord, some will be pleased, but others would frown at it, or even disagree outright
- Remember the woman in the gospel, who poured an expensive perfume on Jesus' feet? Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred shillings, and given to the poor? (John 12:5) or from New International Version "Why wasn't this perfume sold and the money given to the poor? It was worth a year's wages." So it was very expensive!
- On one hand, the others are pleased thinking that the woman would stop at nothing no matter how expensive just to show her love for the Lord
- On the other hand, Judas was so displeased at what the woman is doing wasting the bottle of perfume instead of selling it to raise money to help the poor
- Judas was mad, because he cannot do what the woman is doing. Judas was mad because the woman is not like him, he cannot afford to be as charitable as the woman, because he is greedy
- So we can say here that there are really people so corrupted by the lies of Satan and they have succumbed to it. He is the author of all lies and envy. He hates all the good that human beings do. Why? Because Satan is so envious! He knows that if a human being commits a sin there is still HOPE FOR REDEMPTION, but he, HE IS TOTALLY HOPELESS, he is destined for the eternal fires of hell forever
- The truth about Satan is that he is never happy every second of the day, even if he has dragged millions of souls to the abyss because he is tortured every moment by the mere thought that his days are numbered, and his days will soon end, so he has to drag as many souls as possible to the bowels of hell as revenge for a transgression he himself is only responsible

- Revelations from exorcisms say that even the demons hate themselves so much because they look so ugly as they are also tortured of the thought of their once beautiful angelic bodies before they rebelled
- So what can we do here? It helps that we avoid people who are destructively critical, because you cannot expect anything good to come from them, they will ruin you. Just look to the good side of this mission because Jesus said: "This, My beloved daughter, is not new
- It is just shocking for you to witness it." They will always be around, so, do not listen to them no matter how venomous are their words. The good people will notice that and they will be the ones to defend you

Back to Message

Even those of My followers who claim to believe in Me will find these messages hard to digest. In time, when the proof will be revealed, all of those who proclaim to hate Me will re-evaluate their views.

Some will cry when the sweetness of the truth is shown to them. Others will still question and question because they make the mistake of trying to come to their decision through human reasoning.

Go now pray for all those who question these messages. It is only right that they do. For those who come in My name must accept that they will be challenged, and rightly so. So, therefore, all messages should be looked at carefully.

Go now in peace and love. And remember I love all My children including those who profess to hate Me.

Commentary

- So the most salient point of this message are the "Words of Comfort Regarding Those Who Question These Messages"
- So what is the Lord saying here? "In time, when the proof will be revealed, all of those who proclaim to hate Me will re-evaluate their views" and hopefully, eventually they will be converted because of the tremendous grace emanating from the merits of the Crusade Prayers done by God's remnant army
- So they will always question and they would be very critical to us. Here again, we are reminded of our patience and perseverance; because if we fight with them, it may defeat the very purpose of what we are doing; because they are the very people who need conversion
- We just prayed Crusade Prayer (129) For the Gift of Love... help me to love Your enemies. So, it is better to ignore them, as we remain firm and determined to defend our Lord

Your Loving Saviour

Judge of all mankind
