Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

My dearly beloved daughter it is with great joy that I reunite with you this evening. You are now filled with the grace of discernment and are very clear as to the right path you must follow. Finally, having surrendered in union with Me you are now free. Free of doubts, clear of conscience, stronger than before and ready to reveal to the world My promise. My word will convey the urgency needed to be prepared to open up your hearts to the moment when all will be shown their sins. By being prepared and forewarned many many more souls can be saved. The higher the conversion the weaker then will be the persecution which will follow. My daughter never become complacent. Neither should you be fearful of future events. All will pass and, in its place, a happier world with greater love everywhere.

Commentary

- In this message MDM is commended by Jesus because of her progress in her discernment process
- Look at the words of Jesus here if you notice: MDM is now very clear as to the right path to follow
- MDM has surrendered in union with Jesus and now free of doubts, clear of conscience, stronger than before and ready to reveal to the world the promise of the Lord
- And what is that promise is "the moment when all will be shown their sins" and by being prepared and forewarned many, many more souls can be saved
- The higher the conversion the weaker the persecution which will follow. So by proportion, the more people are converted, there will be less and less persecution

- Jesus reiterated once more the reminder to never become complacent because all will pass and a happier world with greater love everywhere will come
- So here, MDM has progressed and benefitted spiritually and that's how significant and powerful prayer can be

Messages simply to remind all of God's Existence

Tell my people everywhere that these messages are simply to remind all God's children that He exists. They must also realise that their souls are the most important part of their human make-up. To look after their souls is vital if they are to share in the wonderful future that awaits all. People simply need to remind themselves of the Ten Commandments and honour them. Then all they need is to follow My teachings and live their lives as I have told them. The reason I give prophecies is to prove to My beloved followers that a divine intervention is taking place. By doing this I hope they will open their hearts to allow the truth to sink in.

Commentary

- Jesus talked to MDM about the 10 commandments. Once more, let us dissect this very basic Catechism so we may fully understand and follow what Jesus is saying here
- The 10 commandments are also termed by theologians as the Decalogue (Greek déka (δέκα) meaning "ten" or the TEN WORDS)

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS, in order, are:

1. I am the Lord thy God, thou shalt not have any strange gods before Me. This commandment forbids idolatry, Filipinos are so fond of believing in the enchanted (fairies, elves, engkanto, etc.) and amulets. If we fear other spirits, it is tantamount that we worship them. If we fear them, we do not want to offend them so it is similar to worshipping them. Drive them away instead in the name of Jesus so they won't bother you anymore

2. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain. The faithful are required to honor the name of God. It makes sense that if you're to love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength, then you're naturally to respect the name of God with equal passion and vigor
3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath day. Catholic, Protestant, and Orthodox Christians go to church on Sunday, treating it as the Lord's Day instead of Saturday to honor the day Christ rose from the dead
4. Honor thy father and mother. This commandment obliges the faithful to show respect for their parents — as children and as adults. Children must obey their parents, and adults must respect and see to the care of their parents, when they become old and infirm. Exodus 20:12 Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you
5. Thou shalt not kill. Killing an innocent person is considered murder. Killing (in defense) an unjust aggressor to preserve your own life is still killing, but it isn't considered murder or immoral (also in abnormal situations like wars)
6. Thou shalt not commit adultery. The sixth and ninth commandments honor human sexuality. This commandment forbids the actual, physical act of having immoral sexual activity, specifically adultery, (for married people) and fornication (for unmarried people), prostitution, pornography, homosexual activity, masturbation, group sex, rape, incest, pedophilia, bestiality, and necrophilia

7. Thou shalt not steal. The seventh and tenth commandments focus on respecting and honoring the possessions of others. This commandment forbids the act of taking someone else's property. The Catholic Church believes that this commandment also denounces cheating people of their money or property, depriving workers of their just wage, or not giving employers a full day's work for a full day's pay. Embezzlement, fraud, tax evasion, and vandalism are all considered extensions of violations of the Seventh Commandment
8. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor. The Eighth Commandment condemns lying. Because God is regarded as the author of all truth, the Church believes that humans are obligated to honor the truth. The most obvious way to fulfill this commandment is not to lie — intentionally deceive another by speaking a falsehood
9. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife (husband). The Ninth Commandment forbids the intentional desire and longing for immoral sexuality. To sin in the heart, Jesus says, is to lust after a woman or a man in your heart with the desire and will to have immoral sex with them. Just as human life is a gift from God and needs to be respected, defended, and protected, so, too, is human sexuality. Catholicism regards human sexuality as a divine gift, so it's considered sacred in the proper context — marriage
10. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods. The Tenth Commandment forbids the wanting to or taking someone else's property. Along with the Seventh Commandment, this commandment condemns theft and the feelings of envy, greed, and jealousy in reaction to what other people have

- As a summary, we only have TWO (2) GREAT COMMANDMENTS: Love of God (Commandments 1-3), and Love of Neighbor (Commandments 4-10)
- In a hierarchy, love of God is first; and love of neighbor is second
- The subtle errors of liberal theology today is the use of social constructs like humanism so that the consideration of the human experience comes first and becomes the priority especially when laws are enacted
- For sure, as Jesus said that if we do good things to others, we surely do it for God. Yes, that's true. But the correct theology for that is that we love our neighbor because we love God and not the other way around. Loving our neighbor is the necessary consequence if we love God. The error comes if we forward first the cause for human experience rather than divine revelation

Divine Love Brings Peace

Many people pay lip service to my teachings. For others they find them boring and tedious. By imitating Me they are afraid they will miss out on the comfort they believe that material things will bring into their lives. What they fail to understand is that the only real comfort they can possibly experience is Divine Love. This love can only come into your life by drawing closer, through simple prayer, to Me and My Eternal Father. Once you experience this peace you will find yourself free from worries and stresses. No amount of false stimulants can match the euphoria that comes about when you become close to My heart. Not only does this love pierce your entire body, mind and soul it enables you to live a freer life. You will experience a deep contentment unknown to you before. Then you will be taken aback at how little the world of material luxury appeals any more. You will lose interest in these things and this will surprise you.

Oh Children if you could only try to come close to Me you will finally become free. No longer will you feel an empty despair in your soul. Instead you will be calmer, in less of a hurry, have more time to show interest in others and feel at peace. This will radiate from you.

Others will be naturally drawn to you. You will wonder why. Don't be afraid for this is the grace of God at work. When you are filled with grace it is infectious and then it spreads to others through love. Then the cycle continues. Please remember children, therefore, the significance of prayer. The power it yields and the speed at which it travels to envelop all those fortunate souls who are drawn into this cloud of love.

Commentary

- So Jesus reiterates here that the love of God, the love for the Divine brings peace
- "This love can only come into your life by drawing closer, through simple prayer, to Me and My Eternal Father"
- This divine love pierces our entire body, mind and soul and it enables us to live a freer life
- This is the reason why the saints would not bother for the cares of the world because they are already immersed in the love of God because the love of God resulting from our prayers will drive us to contentment
- And I think, we all have experienced this, that after a deep prayer, you do not want to pursue a fight and seek revenge anymore; after a prayer, you do not want to pursue all the material gains, but God will provide them for you
- Prayer is one shield that protects us from all harm that a soul could experience

Satan's Web of Deceit causes fear

Just as prayer and love for one another gains momentum so too does the hatred that spews forth from Satan. The Deceiver, working through these people who have no faith or who are dabbling in dark spiritual games, spreads his deceit. His web of hatred traps even those on the farthest parameter who may feel that they are living a reasonably good life. This subtle web can entrap anyone who is not careful. The one common denominator all those who become trapped feel is unrest, anxiety, despair and fear. This fear turns into hatred very quickly. Run to Me all of you. Do not wait until your life is turned upside down by unnecessary grief. Because I am always there watching. Waiting. Hoping that each of you will let your pride fall away so that I can step in and embrace you. Go into your church and pray to Me. Speak to Me at home. On your way to work. Wherever you are just call out to Me. You will know fairly quickly how I respond.

Commentary

- "Just as prayer and love for one another gains momentum so too does the hatred that spews forth from Satan."
- So, while prayer brings inner peace; hatred will only result to unrest, anxiety, despair and fear

Wake up – Open your closed hearts

Wake up children. Don't you realise by now that you need Me? When will you finally open your closed hearts and let me in? Do not waste valuable time for your own sakes and that of your families. I am Love. You need My love to quench your dehydrated and malnourished souls. My love, once you experience it, will lift your spirit and allow you to feel real love again. This love will then open your mind to the truth – the promises I made for each one of you when I died for your sins on the cross. I love you children. Please show me the love I implore of you. Don't remain lost to me. There is little time children to turn back to Me. Don't delay.

Commentary

- Divine love will open your mind to the truth – the promises I made for each one of you when I died for your sins on the cross
- And what is that promise? The promise of PARADISE

Your loving Saviour
Jesus Christ
