Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

My beloved daughter the torment you are enduring is because The Deceiver is constantly trying to tempt you to give up this most sacred work. He is tearing you apart. Accept this. Never doubt My Divine Word no matter how difficult this may be for you. You will be rewarded with the spirit of peace when you truly surrender to Me. Keep telling Me this every day. Throughout the day and ask Me for the graces to fill you with joy as soon as The Deceiver attacks you. Keep strong My daughter. Never give up. Keep your mind free of clutter and concentrate on My messages for the world. They are the most important messages for mankind today. They are being given to instruct mankind to find the right path towards Me once again.

Commentary

- I quote immediately the 1st 2 statements of this message: "My beloved daughter the torment you are enduring is because The Deceiver is constantly trying to tempt you to give up this most sacred work. He is tearing you apart"
- The devil is constantly disturbing Maria with what she is doing so that she will be discouraged; and will continue disturbing her so that eventually she will stop the important task Jesus gives her. At the same time, Jesus would also continue to encourage her, reminding her such as this one: "Never doubt My Divine Word no matter how difficult this may be for you. You will be rewarded with the spirit of peace when you truly surrender to Me"

- As I prepared this sharing this afternoon, I have come to realize how important Crusade Prayer 96 is; To Bless and Protect Our Crusade Prayer Group - "O my dearest Jesus, ... so that we become immune to the wicked assaults of the devil, and to any evil spirits, which may torment us in this Sacred Mission to save souls..."
- I can really identify with Maria with all the disturbances I also experienced; there are bad spirits tormenting us. In my case 1st it was the internet – our connection is 15 mbps, I should have no problem; 2nd is my old laptop – suddenly it will not open; 3rd my new laptop is accidentally smeared with melted candle after the prayers, I spent one whole day cleaning my keypad
- I can feel it, something will always go wrong, because I've been using laptops for the last 16 years, already, I am a little savvy about computers
- What I mean here, is that I have already become immune with all the problems I experienced. In CoP 96 Jesus said "I will cover each Crusade Prayer Group with My Abundance of Graces, including the Gift of Discernment."
- Every evening before our prayer starts, I make exorcism summoning all the bad spirits surrounding the homes of all the participants in the Name of Jesus to go back to the bowels of hell so they cannot disturb us
- We can identify with each other all the problems we have because MDM also have all of them

People are confused by My Teachings

Many people are lost now. They are confused by My teachings and the numerous ways in which they have been interpreted. Watered Down. Changed. Added to. Taken Away. My children need guidance now so that they can seek the graces needed for them to become strong again and light of heart. This can only come about from prayer and by adhering to My teachings.

I do not exclude one single soul in the world

My children who are converted know this and become closer to My heart through the sacraments. However, for those wandering lost children they must start right at the beginning and remind themselves of the Ten Commandments given to the world through Moses. Many, many, children today are not aware of these. I do not exclude one single soul in the world irrespective of which religion they practice.

Commentary

- If I will limit the scope of the changes in the teachings of the Church after the Second Vatican Council, the generation of Christians we have now is already a product of what has transpired since 1965 when the council closed. If the child is 7 years old in 1965 he will be 62 years old in 2020
- But we need to look back what has prefigured Vatican 2? It's the Age of the Enlightenment where reason is given of utmost importance hundreds of years back
- So we are already in the Vatican 2 generation when we witnessed the Hippies movement, the sexual liberation, women's liberation so that in 1969 the encyclical Humane Vitae came out and it opposed the use of artificial family planning methods and the liberals were enraged that the Church did not allow it; but, family planning is already taught in all the schools all over the world even in conservative Catholic institutions
- So the youth is now oriented towards sex without its accompanying responsibility. What happens next after that because there is no responsibility in a sexual act is the necessary consequence of abortion

- And so we have pro-choice as taught by the social engineers. So, if women have the right to their own bodies, and so the same principle is applied to same sex marriage because we also need to protect the rights of the LGBT
- Now there are news reports in some countries that pedophilia will now be normalized because it is also about human rights; I have the right to marry a young girl or boy
- That is why “People are confused by My Teachings” because the teachings are now mangled beyond recognition – reinterpreted, watered down, changed, added to, taken away
- A total about face from the present situation is nearly impossible but Jesus said that “for those wandering lost children they must start right at the beginning and remind themselves of the Ten Commandments” so there is still hope

Warning to Believers who look down on other creeds

If My believers differentiate themselves and place or exalt themselves at the expense of those who are unaware of My teachings, then they are behaving just as the Pharisees did. Shame on those who consider themselves above those souls who need enlightenment. Shame on those who, although they are aware of the truth, pour scorn on those of different faiths. Who believe that by being privy to the truth, and who benefit from the most Holy Sacraments, that they are more important in My eyes? Yes, I receive great comfort and joy in My heart from those devout followers. But when they condemn or judge others because of their faith they offend me greatly. Followers of mine open your eyes to the truth of My teachings at the most simple level. Judge not others. Do not look down on those whom you believe to be sinners and who reject My teachings. Because they are equal to you in My eyes although you have been given the gift of the truth. It brings me great heartache when those followers, though well meaning, dictate to those poor lost souls how to live their lives. They go about it the wrong way.

Commentary

- Let us be reminded of the Magnificat of the BVM (from the Divine Office) in the 4th strophe:
*He has shown the strength of his arm,
he has scattered the proud in their conceit*
- We are warned here that if we differentiate ourselves and place or exalt ourselves at the expense of those who are unaware of My teachings, then we are behaving just as the Pharisees did – this is CONCEIT
- We are conceited if we think that we are better than the rest; if we pour scorn on different religions
- Remember that God works in many religions of the world, God is offended greatly when we condemn or judge others because of their faith
- Judgment does not belong to us, it belongs to God

Never tell those of different creeds or sexual preferences they are doomed

To push My teachings in a manner where you tell those who are not followers that they will perish or come to harm by brandishing their ways as 'evil' will simply render them weaker than before. Many will simply turn their backs on you. Then you will have failed. Instead of lecturing, show compassion. Teach through example. Never tell or attempt to say to these people that they are doomed in My eyes. Because they are not. I love every single soul of all religions.

Of all persuasions. Of all creeds. Of all sexual preferences. Each one is a precious child. No one better than the next. While sin will always be there – you are all sinners remember that – it will be up to each one of you to follow My teachings and spread My word. Embrace each other. Show compassion to each other. Don't exclude anyone irrespective as to whether they are Catholics, Other Christian Denominations, Islam, Hindu, Jews, Buddhist – even those new cults which have emerged who do not believe in God, The Eternal Father. Pray for them. Teach them the importance of opening their hearts to the truth. Teach through example. Spread conversion. But never ever inflict judgement on others or attempt to differentiate yourself from those who do not understand the truth. Never believe because you have been given the graces from Heaven because of your allegiance to Me that you are better than your brothers or sisters. Yes, you bring joy to My Sacred heart but you must deal with others in a loving but not dictatorial manner.

Commentary

- If we preach to others that they will perish or come to harm because their ways are evil will simply render them weaker than before, and we are not helping them, they will avoid you, and YOUR MISSION IS A FAILURE
- The conversion of a sinner comes in God's time, because God's time is always the perfect time
- God is giving us all the opportunity to save our souls. Other people may have entangled themselves in a quagmire of immorality, but God's mercy does not end there, the more, that God will entice them to go back to Him THROUGH OUR OWN EXAMPLE
- This passage can happen to us: "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you" (Matthew 21:31)

None of you is worthy to judge others

Remember this lesson – not one of you is worthy to judge or access others. No one has the power or divine knowledge to make any moral assessment of others. Keep an open mind always and remember the day you believe you are more important in My eyes than those you deem to be sinners is the day you become lost to Me.

I will not exclude any creed from these messages

My word is now being given as a gift to mankind. Each and every one of you. I will not, through these communications, focus on just one group of devout followers. For those of you who understand the truth let Me remind you. All My children the world over, especially those most hardened sinners and those who do not believe in the existence of My Eternal Father, God the creator and maker of all things, are now a priority. It will be up to you My followers to pray very hard and show love to those who are blind. But do this in the way I am instructing you. Remember finally I love all of you.

Commentary

- These exhortations from Jesus is more or less similar in content and again, JUDGMENT IS NOT IN OUR HANDS
- We cannot profess to be the moral guardian of sinners when we do not know why have they become so
- A child abused in his entire life will look at other people differently than a child who grow in a home full of love and charity
- It is a temptation, that because we know better about spiritual matters, it would be easy to make judgment that others are wrong
- Just because we are Christians we are better than the Muslims? Because we know that the prophet they believe is not credible?

- Let us never forget that in all the faiths and creeds, even in people who do not believe in God, still, the laws of God are written in the hearts of all His children
- We will end this with the words from Jesus: "It will be up to you My followers to pray very hard and show love to those who are blind"

Your loving Saviour
Jesus Christ
King of all Mankind
