Notes: Commentaries are in bullets

My dearly beloved daughter you have just been tested yet again in My most holy name to deviate from the truth. This will be a regular occurrence for not a day will pass when The Deceiver will not stop to try and take you away from this work by placing doubts in your mind. You must not look at other visionaries messages or listen to any other person who claims to come in My name if they give you a message which is contrary to the word you receive from Me. My prophecies are accurately communicated to you My daughter. Satan will continue to chip away and hurt you when you least expect it. So be on your guard at all times.

Commentaries

- A word of pre-caution: “You must not look at other visionaries messages or listen to any other person who claims to come in My name if they give you a message which is contrary to the word you receive from Me”
- “So be on your guard at all times” – temptations abound and they come to us in subtle packages. It is really very important to be very, very, prayerful
- There are so many false prophets – it’s like a military intelligence operation – there is information, misinformation, and disinformation all for the purpose of muddling the real and authentic visionaries
- It is even mysterious that it can happen that even the visionaries themselves do not know that they are being deceived. Authentic visionaries suffer a lot because they are victim souls

My beloved Vicar's days are now numbered. He will have left The Vatican before The Warning takes place. Trust in Me. Obey Me. You are now progressing well. But never take your eyes away from Me. Do not, however, be afraid to live your life as you would normally as long as prayer and devotion to Me is an integral and important part. I am going to ensure that you are not alone in this work from now on and that only those who are being directed by Me will have any influence on your discernment.

Commentaries

- It was on February 11, 2013, Pope Benedict XVI announced his resignation in a speech in Latin before the cardinals, citing a "lack of strength of mind and body" due to his advanced age. His resignation became effective on 28 February 2013. That is at least the version of the press release. But in the Book of Truth the reasons are so glaring that it is because of the infiltration of the Church by the Freemasons
- Now in this message it says "He will have left The Vatican before The Warning takes place"
- So today, Pope Benedict is still in the Vatican. He was born April 16, 1927 so today he is already 93 years old and he is still there
- Remember that prophecies do not give us all the details. "Leaving the Vatican" does not necessarily mean the transfer to another sovereign state outside the Vatican State. It can also mean the transit from this physical plane to another higher plane! And Jesus said: "He will have left The Vatican before The Warning takes place"
- So all eyes will be to our beloved pope because the message of March 29, 2013 says that "My Beloved Pope Benedict will guide God's children from his place of exile." Physically, he is still in the Vatican. But technically, an exile, because he no longer sits on the Chair of Peter (speaking “ex cathedra” – from the Chair of)

- So how long do we have to wait for Jesus to receive the final sacrifice of Pope Benedict? He is now 93. This is something that all of us must reflect about

Now I will share to you some of the current events in the Church. Most of them I found in the links from my Twitter account just this afternoon

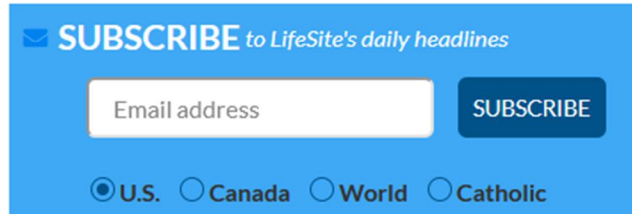

As one source told LifeSite, “the three candidates on the list were obviously meant to silence the voice of the Diocese of Chur that so far has deviated from the mainstream in today's society.”

What is happening now in UK and Ireland? Christians are now going underground.

“We’ve been holding clandestine services since this lockdown began. It feels weird for us to act this way. People have said it feels more like an underground church in China,” he told the Observer.

“The fact that we have to sneak around to worship God, in fear of criminal prosecution, is alarming. But we do what we have to do,” he continued.

Trust Me when I say Satan will not sabotage My Words nor contaminate these messages you receive from Me. That will not happen in this instance, for this mission is paramount and every protection is offered to you My daughter.

Commentaries

- And here. Look at this: “Trust Me when I say Satan will not sabotage My Words nor contaminate these messages you receive from Me”
- This is already an assurance from the Lord! Satan cannot do anything to destroy the messages. Jesus overpowers all our enemies
- Trust in the Lord and you shall not tire. Isaiah 40:31
“They That Wait Upon The Lord, Shall Renew Their Strength, They Shall Mount Up with Wings of Eagles, They Shall Run and Not Be Weary Walk Faint”

If you ever feel concerned about any messages simply ask Me for the answer and it will be given. Do not ask anybody else for their views for they are not qualified to comment on My Divine Word. Never get involved with other visionary's messages. This is very important for it will damage your work. By now you know that I, your Saviour and King of Mankind am in Authority. No man shall sully My word. Ever. Be thankful you are being afforded the gift of prophecy and obey Me at all times. Never offend Me by doubting. Those times are well behind you. Seek Me out with humility in your heart and soul. Keep silent when My word is mocked, attacked, denied, contradicted and questioned for it is not up to you to answer for Me. You will learn so much more from me My daughter if you will sit down and listen to Me. I infuse your mind with the gift of discernment. Accept this gift. Do not doubt. Rejoice with Me.

This is a very important mission unlike anything I have sent to mankind since the early prophets. It is going to require strength on your part in human terms. What is important right now is to simply communicate with Me through prayer, adoration and the Blessed Sacraments. Anything else must be kept outside of this. Your family is very important at all times. Everything outside of these two entities falls into a much lower category. Try to relax and feel My love. Don't waste valuable time worrying. Just join with Me in full union and you will be safe from harm. I love you My daughter and I trust you.

Your devoted Saviour and Teacher
Jesus Christ
